

the rough-hewn and brilliantly colored gorge wide and 6,000 feet deep! To cross you must re-back or airplane. The trail from the north rim is long, and it usually requires two days to cross.

(8)—In the Uintas, Granddaddy Basin, 25 miles contains 330 lakes; flower-studded meadow reaches, towering peaks. The two most accessible and Mirror. Mirror Lake is reached by a good east out of Kamas. The Lake is one mile long, elevation 10,100 feet, offers excellent fishing and cabins are available. Granddaddy Lake is Hades Canyon or by the road to Moon Lake. 15 miles long by three-fourths mile wide, elevation 10,000 feet, offers fishing.

(4)—Strangest lake in America, world's saltiest (Dead Sea), largest inland body of salt water in land, 50 miles wide. Remnant of ancient Lake once covered a large part of the Great Basin. The water is about 23 per cent salt; so heavy human body as on a cushion. There are 10 islands in the lake. On Antelope Island roams one of the herds of buffalo in America. The lake is built entirely on piles about a mile out from the shore, offering bathing, dancing and sports on the lake shore. The lake provides an excellent supply of salt, obtained by pumping water into the lake and letting it evaporate in the sun. The salt works its way enroute to the lake.

Some of the finest fishing in Utah is at Green Lake. Boats are available. Cabins and restaurants served at any time. The Grand Canyon of the Colorado, is an impressive sight.

Midway, three miles west of Heber City, are natural springs, non-spouting geysers, where warm waters are popular attractions. Cafe service and cabins. Heber City, center of fertile farming and stock raising, and junction of highways from Salt Lake, Provo, and Ogden.

(J-8)—Fifty miles west of Park. Prehistoric spot in Colorado. Many petroglyphs, kivas, or ceremonial cliff dwellings. The Grand Canyon of the Colorado is common to four states.

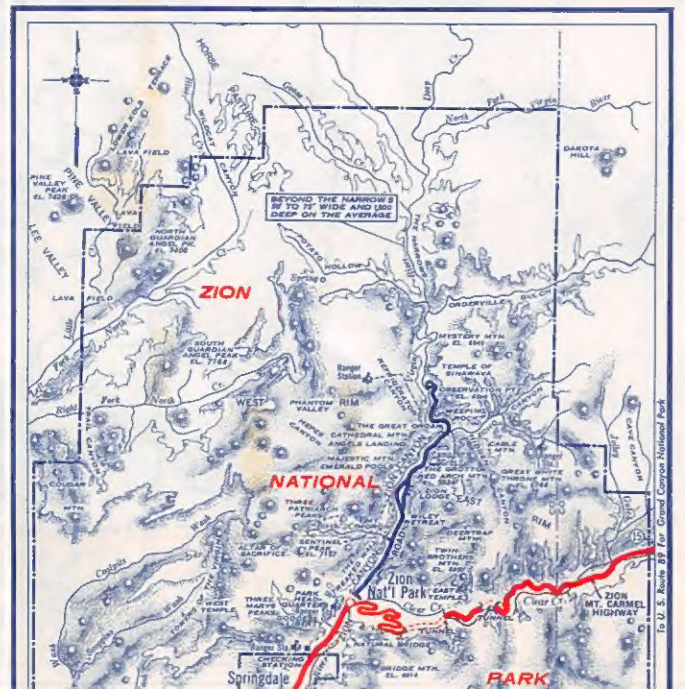

(K-4)—Largest natural arch in the United States. Six feet in diameter, and the rare White Arch. Tens of thousands of people come to see it as you drive by. A highway through which the highway courses for 50 miles of the Grand Canyon.

Halfway between Ogden and Salt Lake City, water swimming in "water fit to drink"; dancing, tables and chairs for picnic lunches; boating, and shrubs. Season, May 30 to Labor Day.

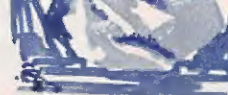

at Washington with room to spare. Unique in that it not only forms an arch below but a curved surface on top, thus resembling a rainbow.

(G-4)—Second largest Utah city, population 57,112 (1950 Census); important industrial, railroad center. Flour mills and canning factories. Historic: Miles M. Goodyear in 1844 or 1845 near mouth of Ogden Canyon, built the first permanent white post in Utah west of the Wasatch Mountains. Outstanding Event: "Pioneer Days," held during the week of July 24th, is one of the nations outstanding western-type events. It features World Champion style Rodeo, Parades, Pageants, and Carnivals. A most magnificent gorge, Ogden Canyon opens at the very edge of Ogden. Patio Springs offers invigorating mineral water swimming, is a beautiful picnic spot. Pine View Dam, recently constructed, creates a reservoir to hold 41,200 acre-feet of water. Boating, swimming in summer, ice skating in winter. The winter sports enthusiast will find Snow Basin one of America's finest winter sports areas. A 5000 foot lift and splendid ski trails have attracted many of the best skiers in the country. Olympic Trials have been held at the basin. Monte Christo park offers excellent trout fishing, marvelous views; numerous campsites.

displays. On grounds is beautiful Mormon Battalion monument, commemorating one of longest infantry marches in military annals.

Historic: Pony Express plaque, in front of the Salt Lake Tribune building, site of early Pony Express station. "This Is The Place" Monument, at mouth of Emigration Canyon, where Brigham Young said, "This is the place." First irrigated land; site now occupied by First Security Bank, 1st South and Main, the beginning of large scale irrigation by Anglo-Saxons in America. Eagle Gate, South Temple and State, original entrance to Brigham Young's private estate.

rim of the canyon. Leading eastward is renowned Zion-Mt. Carmel highway which climbs the lower slopes, then plunges into the solid rock wall through the tunnel more than a mile long. Six large portals afford marvelous views of the canyon as you drive through it. It is one of the most spectacular stretches of road construction on earth.
